

Internship in Online Marketing and Cooperations/ Affiliate-Marketing

FASHION FOR HOME works hard to discover and adapt the very latest style trends to provide our customers with great designs at unbeatable prices. As a young and dynamic team we pioneer international furniture and lifestyle brands. Design, sourcing, marketing, sales and controlling is done right in the heart of Berlin.

Due to our rapid expansion, our talented and motivated team needs reinforcement. Your ambition is important us! You strive to build something new and have the will to actively participate in the continuation of our success.

Your tasks

- Planning, implementation and controlling of affiliate campaigns
- Assistance with sales and customer acquisition campaigns
- Personal support of our partners via email and telephone
- Preparation of contracts in cooperation with potential partners
- Design of advertising material in collaboration with our designers
- Monitoring, analyzing and optimization of current marketing campaigns
- Implementation of market research and analysis

We offer

- You will participate in an exciting new e-commerce company
- You will experience 100% openness and support for new ideas and general input
- You will work in a modern office in central Berlin
- Working with a young, international and successful team
- Attractive compensation with performance and incentive oriented components

What makes you special

- An affinity for the Internet
- Excellent communication skills
- Reliability
- Enjoy taking responsibility
- Creativity and follow-through
- Analytical skills
- Basic knowledge of MS Office
- Native English speaker from US or UK

Have we sparked your interest?

In that case we look forward to getting to know you personally! Please send your online application with a short cover letter and CV to Nicole Winkler: nicole.winkler@fashionforhome.de! Please enter the tag "affiliate marketing internship" as subject heading